Proteas take on tough Jamaican team in Kingston

By SOWETAN REPORTER

The Spar Proteas national netball team, who finished 2024 on a high as the number one ranked team in Africa, start the new year with an exciting challenge when they travel to the Caribbean to take on Jamaica in the three-Test Margaret Beckett Sunshine series in Kingston.

In-form Jamaica recently moved into third spot, behind Australia and New Zealand, on the world rankings, after beating England in a Test series.

The Proteas and the Sunshine Girls have played each other 18 times, with the Proteas winning three times – most notably in the Netball World Cup in Liverpool in 2019, where the South Africans won by 55-52 earning them a spot in the semifinals.

“It’s my biggest challenge since taking over as coach,” said national coach Jenny van Dyk. “It’s always tough playing in the Caribbean, but I went to the Commonwealth Youth Games in Trinidad and Tobago in 2023, so I am used to that kind of atmosphere. The humidity may also be a problem.

“Our strategy will be to close the gap in the scoreline and then to go in hard, looking for the win.”

Van Dyk said goal defence Karla Pretorius was being rested for the tour and would be replaced by San-Marie Visser.

Assistant coach Zanele Mdogana, who was a member of the Proteas team when they last played in Jamaica, is aware of the challenges involved in playing Jamaica at home. “It’s tough to play Jamaica at home. They fill those arenas to capacity, they’ve got the dance, the song ... Those spectators come out in full support of their team. But we made history when we went there under coach Elize Kotze and beat them.

“They’ve got a very vibrant team, dynamic, athletic. Most of their players play in Australia, so they have great international experience. But we want to be the best, so we need to play the best.”

The matches in Jamaica will be played on January 18, 22 and 25 at the National Indoor Sports Centre in Kingston.

From Jamaica, the Proteas will travel to the UK to play in the Vitality Netball Nations Cup next month. The other teams are England, Uganda and Malawi.

Boxing is a profoundly powerful engagement hook that can help turn lives around and ultimately make society feel safe, says former death row inmate and now award-winning boxing matchmaker Luyanda Kana.

Kana got involved in boxing after being advised by Makhenkesi Stofile, the former Eastern Cape premier, to get inmates out of mischief by way of training them for boxing. Kana was serving time in the Middledrift Maximum Security Prison.

Anti-apartheid activist Stofile was convicted in 1987 under the Internal Security Act for terrorism, illegal possession of weapons and furthering the aims of the ANC. Kana, who was sentenced to death for his political activities, said the carefully controlled boxing programmes brought about huge improvements in offenders’ discipline, respect and good behaviour.

“When that programme went well then minister of correctional services Ngconde Balfour launched boxing as a sport in all correctional centres around South Africa and became part of their rehab programme,” said Kana, who was pardoned by then president Thabo Mbeki in 2002 after being in jail for 14 years.

That programme helped a number of inmates who became SA champions after being released from jail. Kana and Mandlakayise Jakavu trained inmates that included Mzukisi Roberts, Sabelo Jubata, Lindile Tshemese, Bonakele Bikitsha, Dumisani Maka and Stanley Gola.

Roberts won BSA development programme called Baby Champs; Tshemese, who went to prison without knowing how to box, became the SA junior bantamweight champion, with Jubata winning the national featherweight belt. Bikitsha, Maka and Gola won provincial titles.

Kana, who stopped training and focused in matching bouts, said: “The department of correctional services should consider doing what Balfour did and reintroduce sports in general, boxing particular, [in prisons].

“They are idling with nothing to do and get involved in stupid things like gangsterism. They are calling me even now asking me to help with training equipment,” said Kana, whose commitment earned him Boxing South Africa matchmaker of the year award in 2018.

Another former inmate who has changed his life around for the better since coming out of prison is Khaya Busakwe from Central Western Jabavu in Soweto. Trained by accomplished veteran Norman Hlabane, Busakwe reigns supreme as the lightweight champion, and is the only national boxing champ from Soweto right now.

CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Municipal Bidding Document (MBD) must form part of all bids¹ invited.
- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).² Collusive bidding is a per se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.
- 3 Municipal Supply Regulation 38 (1) prescribes that a supply chain management policy must provide measures for the combating of abuse of the supply chain management system, and must enable the accounting officer, among others, to:
 - a. take all reasonable steps to prevent such abuse;
 - b. reject the bid of any bidder if that bidder or any of its directors has abused the supply chain management system of the municipality or municipal entity or has committed any improper conduct in relation to such system; and
 - c. cancel a contract awarded to a person if the person committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract.
- 4 This MBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.
- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (MBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.
